

Birthday Wishes

(Words and Music by Mark Wesling)

Intro C Em/B Am

C Em/B Am
It's Sunday afternoon and we can't be late
C Em/B Am
And don't forget the cake that Mom did bake
F C G
'Cause we're going to a party to celebrate
F C G
Grandma's 60th birthday, I can't wait

(Chorus)

F G CM7 C
Just think of all the people my Grandma has seen
F G CM7 C
And all of the cool places she has been
F G C2 C
I hope I know as much when I get older
F G C2 C C2 C
I'm gonna listen closer to what I'm told by her

C Em/B Am
Grandma was born in the '40's, before they had TV's
C Em/B Am
Mom said she read a lot of books and watched movies
F C G
She'd go to the theatre for Saturday matinees
F C G
Then be home for dinner and time to play

C Em/B Am
Each summer she would ride to the nearest beach
C Em/B Am
No video games, how did she stay in her seat?
F C G
She'd look at the sky and hills and birds
F C G
And appreciate the view, that seems so absurd (Chorus)

Birthday Wishes

(Page 2)

          C          Em/B          Am
She'd go fishing and camping and watch baseball

          C          Em/B          Am
That doesn't seem so bad at all

                  F                  C          G
And when it snowed she rode her sled

          F          C          G
And listened to music while tucked in her bed

C                  Em/B          Am
One thing they did then that we still do today

          C                  Em/B          Am
Is gather the family together for a special birthday

                  F                  C          G
Because nothing is better than birthday wishes

          F                  C          G
And eating birthday cake on Grandma's dishes (Chorus two times)

Happy Birthday Grandma!
