

Gifts

(Words and Music by Mark Wesling and Dana A. Zbozien)

Oranges, peaches, apples and pears
Doggies, kittens, birdies and bears
Brothers and Sisters, Moms and Dads
With all these gifts, what could be so bad?

Trees and flowers, oceans and skies
Best friends to play with, hellos and good-byes
Recess, lunchtime, shooting hoops
Sports mags and books, there's so much to do

(Chorus)

But there's one thing that we can do
To help one another make it through
To share our gifts with each of you
So you can be happy, too

Grandmas, Grandpas, teachers from school
Hot soup, cold drinks, milk and cookies, too
Peanut butter sandwiches, big red balloons
Helping after dinner and talking to you

If there's anything else we need
I can't think of a single thing
We have so much already
To spend our time so happily

(After last chorus)

So you can be happy, too
So you can be happy, too
You can be happy, too
