

Babysitting

(Words and Music by Mark Wesling and Dana A. Zbozien)

Intro D A bm

D A bm
I'm in a complicated situation

D A bm
While my mom makes supper, I'm babysitting

G
My baby bro, he's out of control

A
He's moving fast, how long will this last?

G
Oh, he won't slow down, or stop running around

A
How does Mommy cope? Is there any hope?

D A bm
That he will just relax in contemplation

D A bm
And understand my real frustration

G
There must be a cure, I know for sure

A
'Cause he's throwing his toys, that's just like the boy

G
Will his temper cease? 'Cause I need some peace

A
This can't last, no, it has to pass

D A bm
I'm only seven years old, I'm not the one in control

D A bm
But this situation is really getting old

Babysitting

(Page 2)

G

I wish I could zap him into a nap

A

Or convince him to look at a really big book

G

Or settle down, stop running around

A

If this is Mommy's work, then she must be an expert

D

A    bm

But he's my brother, so we're stuck together

bm

Yes, he's my brother, I guess we're stuck together

D

A    bm

'Cause he's my brother, so we're stuck together

D

A    bm

He's my brother, I guess we're stuck together
