

Barney and Gloria

(Words and Music by Mark Wesling and Dana A. Zbozien)

Barney and Gloria were two wonderful pups
With ears that would flop from left to right
Barney was reserved and didn't like to fight
But Gloria she was really known to bite

Well, they like to play with their dog toys a lot
But their favorite one was a sock tied in a knot
They played tug of war and never let go
Until Gloria got mad and her growl would grow

(Chorus 1)

So don't you step on Gloria's tail
'Cause it'll just make her mad and wail
And Barney will run under the table and hide
'Cause he knows there's nothing worse than Gloria's bite

Well, we know they loved each other a lot
'Cause they were always there, laying side by side
Their language was doggy talk and foreign to us
Until Barney messed up and he was scared to die

(Chorus 2)

So don't you get Gloria mad
'Cause believe me it will bring out the bad
And Barney will run under the table and hide
'Cause he knows there's nothing worse than Gloria's bite
