

My Grampy's House

(Words and Music by Mark Wesling and Dana A. Zbozien)

This is a story about my Grampy's house

I saw a spider at my Grampy's house
My Grampy said, "Don't worry, he's as harmless as a mouse"
Be friendly to the spider no matter what you do
And don't you squash him 'cause that's not nice to do

I saw some rabbits in my Grampy's yard
My Grampy said, "Don't worry, 'cause they're just playing cards"
Be friendly to the bunnies no matter what you do
And don't you chase them 'cause that's not nice to do

I saw some birdies at my Grampy's farm
My Grampy said, "Don't worry, 'cause they'll do you no harm"
Be friendly to the birdies in whatever you do
And don't throw rocks at them 'cause that's not nice to do

I saw some squirrels in my Grampy's tree
My Grampy said, "Don't worry, they're as friendly as can be"
Be friendly to the squirrels in whatever you do
And don't you yell at them 'cause that's not nice to do

I saw a cat in my Grampy's stable
She's as sweet as can be, and her name is Mable
Be friendly to the kitties no matter what you do
And don't pull their tails 'cause that's not nice to do

I saw a cow in my Grampy's barn
My Grampy said, "Don't worry, 'cause she'll do you no harm"
Be friendly to the cows in whatever you do
And don't push her over 'cause she might fall on you
Yes, she might fall on you
