

Prayer

(Chorus from Psalm 139, Words and Music by Mark Wesling and Dana A. Zbozien)

Dear God,
Thank You for this day
I know it's because of You that I'm here
Because You made it that way
'Cause You know everything that will happen
And You know everyone I'll meet
But whether the clouds rain or the sun shines
If You're here with me, the day
Will be sweet

(Chorus)

“For You created my inmost being
You knit me together in my mother's womb
I praise You because I am fearfully and wonderfully made”
(Psalm 139)
