

Price of Being Small

(Words and Music by Mark Wesling and Dana A. Zbozien)
(Capo 4th Fret)

Intro am G F E F G E
This song is for anybody who's ever felt small

am G
Talking to my dog and seeing eye to eye
F E
Looking at the people all up in the sky
F G E
'Cause that's the price of being small

am G
Sitting on a chair, my feet can't touch the floor
F E
I can't reach the doorknob of any door
F G E
'Cause that's the price of being small

(Chorus 1)
F G E
Oh, when will I grow some more?
F G E
So I can be more respectable

am G
Sitting at the table, and being afraid of heights
F E
At my age, don't I have any rights?
F G E
'Cause that's the price of being small

am G
Riding in the car with the windows down
F E
I can't reach the button, now my hair's all blown around
F G E
But that's the price of being small

am G
In the swimming pool, I'm tied to a tube
F E
Did I do something wrong? 'Cause this seems very rude
F G E
'Cause that's the price of being small
