Intro G#dim7 Am G#dim7 Am

G#dim7 Am
William was a monkey and very serious
G#dim7 Am
His attention to detail was always a plus
G#dim7 Am
He would mull over ideas for several days
G#dim7 C
And look at each option in so many ways

FM7 F FM7
His dress was quite formal and he always wore a vest
C G
If there was one loose thread, you would dare not jest
FM7 F FM7
His tie was made of silk and his suit all wool
C G
And his shoes always shiny and never dull

G#dim7 Am
He wore spectacles that were a hundred years old
G#dim7 Am
And a thick black scarf whenever it was cold
G#dim7 Am
He'd walk each morning to the corner newsstand
G#dim7 C
To get coffee and a paper was always his plan

FM7 F FM7
He'd see buildings and skylines and so many doors
C G
Filling people with ideas galore
FM7 F FM7
So many directions he could go
C G
Each an opportunity to increase what he'd know

G#dim7 Am
He'd pull everything together all in his head
G#dim7 Am
And make a decision when everything was said
G#dim7 Am
A choice made from logic and observation
G#dim7 C
Carefully made could be so much fun

And realize that he wasn't such an ape

FM7 F FM7
With our minds we can do almost anything

C G
From inventions to cures our minds will bring

FM7 F FM7
Oh, you can do anything

C G
From inventions to cures your minds will bring

Just keep your minds focused on your own goals

C G C
You can do anything no matter how old you are
